Act of 1992/Amendment 2000
Proposed Amendments*

RCI ACT 1992 - Current Position
ACT Amendment - 2000

The RCI Act 1992 and its Proposed Amendments

The Act with Amendments 2000

An Act to provide for the constitution of the Rehabilitation Council of India for regulating the training of rehabilitation professionals and monitoring the training of rehabilitation professionals and personnel, promoting research in rehabilitation and special education and the maintenance of a Central Rehabilitation Register and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

Proposed Amendments

Insert 'development' before regulating
Substitute special education for 'education of persons with disability'
Include 'habilitation' along with rehabilitation.
Include "early intervention" and prevention along with rehabilitation

Reasons for Change

Development of professionals and personnel is necessary and is already being done by RCI through its training programmes and therefore needs to be included.

Development needs to precede regulation so that 'quality service' is made available to PWD's. Regulations without development does not meet the needs of PWD's. Research in prevention and early intervention is important to reduce the magnitude of disability in the country.

Act After Approval of Proposed Amendments

An Act to provide for the constitution of the Rehabilitation Council of India for the development, regulation training and monitoring of training of habilitation and rehabilitation of professionals and personnel and promoting research in rehabilitation, prevention, early intervention, special education, for persons with disability. Maintenance of a central Rehabilitation Register and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

Chairman of RCI and Chairpersons of other apex level national bodies like the Chairperson of the National Trust & the CCD are provided with the facilities as are admissible to Secretaries to the Govt. of India. Not paying an equivalent salary to Chairman, RCI is discriminatory and unjust.

There has been a major increase in the quantum of work and the number of institutions that the RCI has to work with since the time when the Act was promulgated.

Salaries of Chairman & Vice-Chairman should therefore be equivalent to Secretary & Additional Secretary, Govt. of India. Till this decision is taken allowances as recommended by the Council needs to be paid.
