

Rehabilitation Council of India

FN.No-8-A/Policy (Recog.)/2009-RCI

Dated: March 2015

Guidelines for nomination of Visiting Experts

For Certificate & Diploma level of courses

- Teaching Faculties as prescribed in the syllabi for certificate and diploma level courses with min. of 02 years of teaching experience in the respective area of disability at RCI approved training institute.
- OR
- Qualified teaching faculties at Bachelor and Master level courses with one year of teaching experience in the respective discipline.
 - Faculty must possess the valid RCI Registration number.

For Undergraduate & Degree level of courses

- Teaching Faculties as prescribed in the syllabi for undergraduate / Degree level courses with min. of 03 years of teaching experience in the respective discipline at RCI approved training institute / university department/ National Institute/ Hospital Department.
- Faculty must possess the valid RCI Registration number.

For Master and M.Phil. level courses

- Teaching Faculties as Associate Professor with min. of 03 years of teaching experience / Professor at Master / M.Phil. level courses in the respective area of specialization at RCI approved training institute / university department / National Institute / Hospital department.
 - Faculty must possess the valid RCI Registration number.
- Generally, the Council deposes two members of team of those who are working as core faculties on regular basis for inspection purpose. However, we also encourage qualified Senior rehabilitation professionals with Bachelor or Master Degree qualification in the respective specialization with minimum 05 years of experience as a private practitioner or working in special school/service centre/rehab centre run by Govt. or NGO's.
 - The Council reserves the right to depute Board Members and the members of various expert committees of RCI for inspection along with other co experts.
 - Generally, the Council does not nominate any of the members of the team within the same state in order to avoid any kind of biasness or difference of opinion of experts. Experts from the National Institutes from the same state are occasionally requested to verify the facts in case of any complaints received against any approved institutes.
 - In case members as visiting expert, do not visit the institution as requested by RCI within the specified time or refuses to visit without genuine cause, his/her empanelment may be discontinued for future visits. Also in case any team or member of visiting experts submit false information regarding the institution he/she visits, his/her empanelment will be debarred for ever and he/she may also be liable on the grounds of code of conduct as narrated u/s 21 of RCI Act 1992.
 - Professionals deputed for inspection or any other work by the Council may be considered as official work and no leaves should be deducted for the minimum required period by the Institute.

Member Secretary
RCI